and organize things. Do you want to think up and implement events together with the resident artists and the neighbourhood?

make more In-Situ

Samenschool is a place for social, economic and artistic experimentation. Non-hierarchically schooling together, together learning and living, food managing - whether or not in collaboration with the neighbourhood. Residents can release their concepts at the Samenschool and the neighbourhood in order to send a collective energy in the public sphere.
Schooling together can take such close forms that it is no longer clear who is the maker and who is public. This is exactly the intention.
