Printatelier Antenna is a part of Samenschool since 2019.
With risograph and laser printer, for creating all kinds of publications!

is an inclusive, artist-run house in Borgerhout, Antwerp—both a passage and a meeting place. It's a space for social, economic, and artistic experimentation. Non-hierarchically schooling, (un-)learning and living together. Known for international collaborations and its commitment to making art accessible to all, Samenschool celebrates diversity and creative expression. Everyone is welcome. A participant-led forum offers space for discussion, inspiration, and exchange.
